We work with carefully selected suppliers, for their products, their love of the profession but also for the values they defend in their work.

It is also cooking over embers thanks to a special oven, powered by charcoal, which gives our meats, fish and vegetables a unique flavor.

Not to mention: more than 50 references of wines from passionate winegrowers, craft beers, fresh fruit juices, and - it seems - a little extra soul!

RESTAURANTS

Having a Digital Guide software to show nearby restaurants is a great way to provide guests with the best dining experience.

The Digital Guide platform gives guests access to information about various restaurants in the area, including location with map and menus.

It enables them to find and book their desired restaurants quickly, easily and conveniently.

Guests can choose from different restaurants based on their tastes and preferences, without having to waste time searching from a number of sources.

This helps enhance the overall guest experience, as they don't have to spend extra time researching the perfect restaurant.

Superior ingredients, including spices and nuts, are paired with chocolate of varying degrees of intensity to create new flavor combinations. Color, shape and texture are given equal weight as taste, resulting in edible works of art.

Presented in a jewelry box-inspired package, each collection includes one piece each of 25 different flavors and designs.

Our chocolates do not contain preservatives and are best enjoyed within three weeks of delivery. Please also note that our chocolates are not manufactured in a nut free environment and may contain traces of peanut or other nut oils.

STORE

If you have a shop or sell items online, you can now create a web store directly on the Digital Guide platform.

This will allow you to sell items from your shop or online store on the Digital Guide platform, and provide an easy way for customers to purchase items from you.

When customers purchase items from your store, they will be able to pay with their credit card or using some of the supported payment gateways like PayPal. You will then receive the payment via your chosen payment method.
